BY AMY CARNIOL

Style and social consciousness merge at Arcadia, Philly's premier eco-chic boutique where protecting the environment is front and center year round. Stocking everything from men and women's clothing and jewelry to gifts and home goods, this unique spot specializes in products from local, sustainable and emerging fashion designers and artists. Even though many of the store's items are made in Philly, they aren't sold anywhere else in the city. Prices range from $20-200. 819 N. Second St., 215.667.8099, arcadiaboutique.com
