

STYLE WATCH

Bella Turka

Turkish Delights

Looking for jewelry to surprise your sweetheart? Bella Turka has unique pieces that will make her swoon. With its original location in The Shops at Liberty Place still open for business, this independent boutique recently added a second outpost in Midtown Village. Owner Koray Avci fills his new shop with unusual treasures from his native Turkey, as well as unique items from other exotic locales like Israel, Greece, Spain and Brazil. Bella Turka stocks eye-catching jewelry, including chunky cuffs, bangle bracelets, sparkling rings and dangly earrings, as well as fun accessories like colorful scarves, all at extremely reasonable prices—which makes this store the perfect place to buy gorgeous gifts or add fabulous finishing touches any outfit. 113 S. 13th St., 215.557.9050, bellaturka.com—Amy Carniol