

» SHOPPING Festival-Friendly Finds

We've rounded up the perfect shopping spots to ensure you arrive at Philly's exciting summer festivals and events in style.

BY AMY CARNIOL

- CUISINE SCENE Attending a food festival? With a cross-body bag from Free People (1625 Walnut St., 215.561.0720) you'll have both hands free to sample scrumptious fare. Hardcore foodies can take notes on every sweet and savory bite in a MoMA notebook from Hello World (257 S. 20th St., 215.545.5207).
- SUMMER SOUNDS Music festivals can last all day, so snag comfy-chic sandals at Bus Stop Boutique (727 S. Fourth St., 215.627.2537). Next, head to Anthropologie (1801 Walnut St., 215.568.2114) for flirty fedoras and breezy dresses. Finish your look with AJ Morgan sunglasses in fun shapes and colors from Blendo (1002 Pine St., 215.351.9260).
- FILMS AL FRESCO Before an outdoor movie screening, order a pre-packed picnic from Red Owl Tavern (433 Chestnut St., 215.923.2267) complete with delectable goodies and a keepsake red blanket. At Pinot Boutique (227 Market St., 215.627.9463), select just the right wine to complement your meal, and transport your bottle in a crocodile-print wine purse.
- RAIN DATES Don't let wet weather put a damper on your good time. Instead, sport a bold, waterproof Nooka watch from Omoi Zakka Shop (1608 Pine St., 215.545.0963). To keep your feet dry, Laila Rowe (1710 Chestnut St., 267.324.5723) stocks rain boots in solid colors and novelty prints.

Red Owl Tavern

(CLOCKWISE FROM TOP) ©ELLIOTT JOHNSON PHOTOGRAPHY; IMAGE COURTESY OF CHEESESTEAKTEES; ©COURTNEY APPLE PHOTOGRAPHY

Enviama Life Spa

Treat Your Feet

After walking around the city, reward your feet with these sole-soothing treatments. —A.C.

MI CUMBIA

Each day, the staff at this South American-style organic oasis combine fresh coconut with all-natural ingredients like pumice and mango butter for treatments including the Bagazo del Coconut pedicure and the Mango Foot Massage. For an extra dollar, indulge in a decadent chocolate flight during your service. 328 S. 17th St., 215.735.7980

EVIAMA LIFE SPA

Inspired by Indian techniques, the delightful PediKarma service stimulates an energetic shift in the body. Feet are submerged in an aromatic salt bath, gently massaged and exfoliated, and rubbed with a metal "wand" to draw out toxins. 109 S. 13th St., 2nd Floor, 215.545.3344

TOMMI STUDIO

Expert technicians here pamper patrons with treatments like the Healing Pedicure, which incorporates an organic grain rub and vegan oil. To help customers achieve total relaxation, the After 5 Pedicure includes a reflexology session and a glass of wine. 718 Chestnut St., 215.238.1221

HOT TEES

Beat the summer heat with original t-shirts from these local shops. —A.C.

Old City T-Shirts

Choose from a slew of Philly-inspired graphics at this welcoming spot, and in a mere 30 seconds, the husband-wife owners will custom-print it onto a tee for just five dollars. 233 Church St., 215.925.7860

CHEESESTEAKTEES

The designs here put a modern spin on Philly icons like the Liberty Bell and, of course, the store's namesake sandwich. The ever-expanding product line pays homage to sports superstars and current catchphrases (see photo below). 506 South St., 215.238.5880

DUKE & WINSTON

Evoking the urbane feel of a British gentlemen's clubhouse, this showroom appeals to the preppy set. Come in to meet the store's resident bulldog and leave with an upscale graphic tee. 633 N. Second St., 267.639.5594

